

READERS & WRITERS DAY 2007

A FREE EVENT, for members of READING GROUPS & WRITERS' GROUPS in EAST SUSSEX, and for those interested in getting involved

Library &
Information Services

Presentations - from 12.30pm _____

- Kay Green, fantasy writer, English teacher and editor of Earlyworks Press, Kay will speak about the Earlyworks Press Novel Idea Competition, and How to Read and Write Modern Poetry.
- Established local author Victoria Seymour writes about Hastings in WW2. She also created Hastings.uk.net, a popular website about the town. Victoria will talk about the True Crime from Foyle's War.
- Guy Pringle is the founder and publisher of newbooks, the magazine for readers and reading groups. Guy will talk about newbooks, and his lengthy experience with reading groups.

BOOK SIGNINGS

FREE BUFFET LUNCH

Kay Green

Guy Pringle

Writers' Workshop - Victoria Seymour

- Victoria will lead a workshop addressing the issues involved in becoming a published author.

Please book this workshop in advance - see below.

- Much Ado Books, from Alfriston, will be on hand to offer you some great reads at good prices. They are also keen supporters of authors and reading groups, so find out more about their programmes.

To book your place on the writing workshop, or to book a table for your group, contact Eileen Down at East Sussex Library Service, on 01273 481813. eileen.down@eastsussex.gov.uk

SATURDAY, 3RD MARCH
DE LA WARR PAVILION
BEXHILL

12.30 PM TO 3 PM